Read and Reflect on a Just Right Book - Day 1
30 minutes of reading, 15 minute response = 45 minutes total

I Can:

Standard 4. RL. 1: I can use direct evidence from a text to explain and draw inferences.

Standard 4. RL.10: I can read and comprehend grade-level fiction texts.

Standard 4. W. 9a: I can use grade-level reading strategies when writing about fiction texts.

Materials or links you will need:

- Just Right Book
- Sticky Notes
- Reading Log/Response & Reflection

Directions:

1) Read your Just Right book for 30 minutes and track your thinking on sticky notes while reading. Refer to your sticky notes when writing your reflection or response.

2) Log the amount of time you read, the amount of pages read, and parent signature. Then write a response on your reflection sheet (you should have a hard copy, if not, download from teacher website).

3) Your response/reflection must NOT be a summary, but rather explanation of thoughts, feelings, meaningful connections, questions you have, predictions, etc. Your response should be at least a paragraph in length and include text evidence.

Assessment:

--Your reflection will be assessed for understanding of the book.

-- Response must NOT be a summary, but rather explanation of thoughts, feelings, meaningful connections, questions students have, predictions, etc. Response should be at least a paragraph in length and include text evidence.
